

Memoirs of a Fighting Captain
Admiral Lord Cochrane
Admiral of the Red, Rear Admiral of the Fleet
Introduced by Brian Vale

The text of the volume is derived from the two books of memoirs that Lord Cochrane compiled towards the end of his life. Covering his career down to the Stock Exchange scandal 1814 and his expulsion from the Royal Navy.

Typeset in Bulmer, Printed on caxton wove paper, bound in Full cloth with design by Neil Gower. Slipcase image - The Pallas after having run the Minerve aground 14 May 1806. Coloured aquatint by J Wells after Nicholas Pocock 1807, Frontispiece "The idol of seamen and the wonder of the British navy" Thomas, Lord Cochrane, by P E Strehling 1807.

311 pages, 33 illustrations.

Book is in Mint Condition

$50.00

(including shipping - Australia Only)

