

Anthem for Doomed Youth Poets of the Great War

Edited and introduced by Lyn Macdonald

188 Poems written by soldiers during the 1st World War.

Thirty Seven Photographs of Soldiers at war and Portraits of Individual Soldiers. 270 pages

Typeset Plantin with Zapf Chancery Bold Display, Printed on a special making of toned paper, Bound in Full Printed Cloth. Binding Illustration - Silhouette - Seeking a comrade's grave, Pilckem Ridge (reversed). Front endpaper 10th Battalion - The Royal Fusiliers on their way to the trenches, St Pol November 1916. Rear endpaper - Wounded British prisoners being escorted by a German on the Menin Road.

Slip case is in Very Good Condition, Book is in Mint Condition

$55.00

(including shipping - Australia Only)

